

STYLE--- IS THE THING

The Autumn Exposition
All The Store's A Stage For THE NEW FALL FASHIONS

The fashions of the Fall season of 1927 are given introduction here in coats, frocks, hats, shoes, and the accessories of dress—all chosen with a fine appreciation of the mode, subtle harmony of line and garniture made vivid by rich fabrics and brilliant touches.

These modes are such striking departures from previous seasons that they will serve as fashion inspirations all down the line—until the Fall season wears an entirely new aspect. Seldom has Autumn told such an interesting tale of fabrics and colors. And economy blends perfectly with style here.

IT IS OUR AIM

1. To inculcate in every student in the Lubbock County Schools habits of honesty and industry.
2. To teach every student to use the English language effectively in speaking and writing.
3. To teach every student to write a legible hand, to spell correctly the words he uses in his writing, and to make the computations necessary in business.
4. To teach every student the duties of citizenship, and to think more of its duties than its rights.
5. To help every student to select his life-work as early as possible and to shape his course of study to prepare him for it.
6. To teach every student to reverence God, to honor his WORD and to feel the importance of obeying its precepts.
7. To teach every student to reverence home, father and mother, and to have proper respect for those in authority.

FOREWARD

In issuing this bulletin, we make no apologies and ask you to excuse nothing. We are not perfect and consequently, blundering errors may result. Nevertheless, this little book is the product of many minds working in harmonious, concerted effort. It is the result of much careful thought. Thanks be to the Superintendents and principals who so kindly helped in this publication. Without their assistance and good advice, little or nothing could be accomplished. Again, thanks to the advertisers, who have made this bulletin possible. Getting men to take space was the easiest task. Individual concerns, one of a kind, were sought at random, and the response was little short of astonishing. Please read the ads.

This bulletin is being issued to serve many purposes. Primarily, it is intended for teachers, pupils, trustees and patrons of our schools and not as an organ to boost our educational system or our county. Our schools and our county are not in dire need of advertising. What may be needed most of all is a better understanding and appreciation of our homelife, both urban and rural and a fuller realization of the facts that it is your business and ours to get the most satisfaction from living. And in order to do this, we must put something into this game we call life, by beginning with our homeland and our children. We must show the same interest in our boys and girls that we expect them to show in things worthwhile. We must show a greater interest in our schools than we do in the various and sundry attractions of the world, if we are to come to the realization of our ideals.

Lubbock County schools are not the products of one person's thoughts or efforts. Our schools are built to endure and grow with the years. The men and women who stand as teachers before the youth of Lubbock County today acknowledge, with grateful hearts, the debt of gratitude, that is long past due, we owe to former teachers, patrons and trustees along with the present obligation we feel so keenly to our citizenship as a whole today. No County is more bountifully blessed with progressive, wide-awake citizenry, than is Lubbock. Our City and rural bond issues never fail and our school programs go over with a bang.

LUBBOCK, TEXAS

The members of the teaching profession of Lubbock county are fully appreciative of the good will borne them by the patrons and as bread cast on the waters will return to bless the donor, so will another kind word of encouragement and welcome to the teacher in the community bring renewed zeal to his lifework, a firmer faith to his mind and a broader and deeper love to his heart—resulting in a return blessing to the community as a whole.

The County Superintendent wishes to express his heartfelt thanks for the united effort put forth by teachers, trustees and patrons to help him make the schools of Lubbock County better. As the schools have been good in the past, so shall they improve under such splendid co-operation.

EVIDENCE OF PROGRESS

At the beginning of the school year, September 1, 1917, Lubbock County schools, city and county, had a scholastic population of 2564, as follows: Lubbock, 1186; Slaton 506; Lubbock County, 872. The 26 districts of the county had 3 brick school buildings and 23 wooden structures with a total outstanding bonded indebtedness of $60,000.

Today, September 1, 1927, ten years later, Lubbock County has a total scholastic population of 8,159 with a combined force of 270 teachers in the 26 districts. All districts except two have brick buildings, with Lubbock and Slaton districts having 10 and 3 respectively, while total county school bonded indebtedness today is $1,098,100. Of the 26 districts, 13 are common and 13 are independent. All the commons have $1.00 tax on County Court $12.00 per acre land valuation, while all the independents except 2 have $1.00 also—those two having raised land values to an average of $30 per acre.

In the 26 districts the school systems are as follows: One teacher, 1; Two teacher, 2; three teacher, 8; four teacher, 5; five teacher, 7; Idalou, 15; Slaton, 40; Lubbock 125.

What effect will another decade have upon the school districts of Lubbock County?

It Takes Time to Educate Children--It Also Takes Time To Build a Business

Our business was started in 1905—a little over twenty-two years ago. This is three times as long as the average business lasts.

This makes us believe that we have been conducting our business along the right lines.

Our business has grown year by year and we are today in a position to give our customers better service than ever before.

We want to extend to you an invitation to make our store your headquarters when you are in Lubbock.

The work, as outlined above, will equip a student in the rural school, to enter the graduating class of Lubbock, Slaton, or Idalou High School in September, 1928. Next session, we shall offer another subject in order that a pupil shall have at least twelve and one half credits on his sheet when he finishes the tenth grade. Arrangements have been made for all Club workers under the County Agents to receive a one fourth credit for each year's work, not exceeding four years. Thus a student finishes the tenth grade next spring, having done eight units in the two formers grades, may have a total of thirteen credits. The High Schools of the cities require students to finish that number out to sixteen and seventeen.

Outline maps, note books, efficiency test pads, spelling tablets, etc., for the grade pupils also, are the greatest help devices, and make the work more vital and interesting than any other sideline assistance.

In this day and time, when the world about us everywhere is calling for boys and girls and men and women, who can DO things, it behooves us to teach our children the problems of life in actual experience. Begin where the pupil lives and is, and lead him on.

FOOT NOTE; Three Rural schools are equipped to teach Manual Training and Home Economics, Monroe, Wolffarth, Carlisle, and they offer electives in that work. Likewise one will probably teach Latin instead of Spanish to round out that work begun in 1925.

WE BELIEVE

Lubbock county is the outstanding county in the nation in percentage of teacherages. Of our 23 rural schools, 22 have teachers' homes furnished free while the only one lacking is the one teacher Ranch School. We submit this statment of prgressiveness to the test.

We have won the cup in the County Rural Declamation Contest for three successive years. In 1926, Virginia Mathis went to Austin as the Rural Junior Girl Declaimer from the Second District; also, she won first in the District Contest in 1927, but the rules did not permit the winner to go to Austin. Alvis Phillips won second place in the District Declamation Contest for Rural Junior Boys in 1926. In 1927 Lloyd Harvey won second place in the same contest.

For the last two years we have won the blue ribbon at the South Plains Fair for the best Community Exhibit of agricultural products.

Last year we maintained ten grade of school work. The quality of our work is attested to by the fact that our pupils who entered the Lubbock schools have continued their studies without any loss of credits.

Our aim for the present school year is to improve. We expect to continue the beautification of our grounds and buildings, to extend our activities in the Interscholastic League, to enlarge our library, and to raise our standards of instruction. Our three teachers are members of the Texas State Teachers' Association, and together with the Board of Directors, all receive and read the Texas Outlook, the best school journal published in Texas.

Probably many people do not know where Caldwell is, but it is our intention to let you find out before this year is over. We are twelve miles north and two miles west of Lubbock. But because we are "away out in the country" is no sign that we are not going to have a good school. We are going to try to be the most "up and coming" school in Lubbock county.

Caldwell has three teachers: C. B. Bentley, principal; Miss Nannie Crouch, intermediate deparment and Miss Lou Crouch, primary department. All the teachers are living in the teacherage which is on the school grounds and they intend to be "on the job" from the opening of school, Monday morning, September, 12, until the closing of school in May.

Caldwell was the first school in Lubbock County to obtain 100 o/o membership in the State Teachers' Association. Caldwell has reserved a booth for the South Plains Fair which is held in September.

There is a growing Sunday School in the community which the teachers of the last year helped to organize. The teachers this year intend to co-operate with the people in this respect, also. Come on! Let's go! Watch us grow!

Faculty: R. L. Hooten, superintendent; Lawrence Clarke, principal; Mrs. P. G. Morrison; Miss Grace Wheeler; Mrs. Emma Hooten.

Acuff is located about fourteen miles east of the city of Lubbock, in the heart of one of the best farming sections on the south plains. Here much time and attention is given to the raising of thoroughbred live stock and to improving field plants. Diversification has been the order of the day since the community's beginning.

We are proud of our good churches, good schools, splendid homes and excellent citizenship.

We have one of the best Rural High Schools to be found in the county. A splendid five room brick building and a good auditorium are equipped to take care of the 190 school children who reside in our district. Nothing is being left undone, to make the standard of work done here equal to that in the larger high schools. Our teachers have been selected because of the special preparation each has made for her respective work, and their professional standing is high, each having had from two to four years of college training.

Our aim is to give to every boy and girl within the boundary of our district a fair chance to develope into a useful man or woman, equipped and trained to take his place in life along with the best citizenship to be found anywhere or at any time.

Don't be a knocker, but join our church, co-operate with our school, assist the woman's Demonstration club, boost our Boy's and Girl's Club, identify yourself with the Parent-Teacher's Association, and Progress will lead the way. "It can be Done."

Located in the choicest farming district of Lubbock county, just seven miles due east of the Texas “Tech,” we boast of 200 scholastics.

Our graduates qualified to enter any affiliated high school in the State as full Seniors. In addition to the literary standard, we are not forgetting the social, physical and moral activities of our community that lead towards making real men and women of our boys and girls. Two organized churches with services twice a month. Sunday school every Sunday with an average of 100 in attendance. Young People's Union every Sunday evening. Prayer meeting every Wednesday night. Our purpose or aim: The aim in the work of Wolffarth school is preparation for Christian citizenship. In the reaching of this aim we have outlined the work in such a way as to meet the fundamental needs of every pupil. We have considered both the child who intends to go beyond the high school into college, and also the child who must leave school at the close of high school. To this end we have endeavored to give as vital, essential and practical work as possible. In this way, teaching the skills needed in every day life and the inculcation of those ideals, attitudes and interests necessary to Christian citizenship. I trust that all the people of the Wolffarth community will have a sincere desire to put new life and interest into the usual dull routine of school book recitations; that all will have a vision of what industrial activities can do to restore new life and interest. We therefore hope that you will co-operate with all agencies that are aiding or will aid in building up the school and community. Among the agencies that will help industrially are: Agriculture, farm and wood shop work and home economics.

IDALOU PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Board of Education: T. S. Reynolds, president; Bailey Guess, secretary; Lee J. Sanders; E. A. Eubank; W. M. McCray; D. B. McInroe; J. T. Carlton.

Faculty, High School: G. W. Scott, B. A., superintendent; L. F. Swinney, principal (mathematics); Mary Clift, Spanish-Science; Mrs. Grace Chatham, Social Science; Madge Lewis B. A., English.

Faculty, Central Ward: T. W. Montgomery, principal; Roy Boyd, Histor; Lucile Norwood, English; Pauline Scott, Reading; Margaret Dickinson, fourth grade; Alice Littlefield, third grade; Mrs. Katie Scott, second grade; Mrs. L. F. Swinney, primary.

Faculty, Jay Ward school: J. B. White, principal; Mrs. J. B. White, B. A. Assistant.

The Idalou high school offers a total of twenty courses as follows: Algebra, two years; Solid Geometry; Advanced arithmetic; General Science: Biology; Physics; E. E. History; M. E. History; American History; Civics; Economics; Spanish, two years; English, four years: plane Geometry and Public Speaking. We require 16 units for graduation. One unit may be secured by proper participation in the ultra-activities.

The Idalou Public Schools consist of a high school of one hundred fifty students, a faculty of five teachers, two ward schools with ten teachers, and an enrollment of four hundred students. Each of these schools is located in substantial and modern buildings.

The Idalou High School has for another year a very strong faculty. One of which, we think, is unusual for a school of this size. Each teacher has made special preparation to teach the subjects which shall be attempted. We secured as a result of the work done last year five additional units of affiliation which gives us a total of thirteen and one half. The school lacks of course, only one and one half credits of the number required for admission to the colleges and universities of this state. It will be an easy matter next year to raise our school to the standard of fifteen credits set by the colleges for admission to the freshman classes and on par with the best high schools of the state as far as such admission is concerned. The high school has by far the best gymnasium to be found in this part of the state with the exception of the colleges. This gymnasium was made possible last year through the efforts of the teachers and students, and without any assistance from school funds.

We fully believe that our high school can do and is doing a very high type of work and has as much to offer as far as we go as any of the surrounding schools, and therefore invite the graduates of the neighboring rural schools to come over and finish their high school work with us. Our graduates next year will be permitted to enter any college or university in this state without examination if we secure one and one half credits the present year which should easily be done.

Our grammar school is operated on practically the same basis as our high school and in fact all modern high schools. We have departmental work in this school and use study hall. This plan last year proved very successful and we are convinced that it is the best plan for the grammar grade for by this means special teachers for the various subjects may be secured. We believe and have proved to our satisfaction that if a study hall is good for the high school, it is good also for a grammar school.

It is our desire to co-operate with our neighboring schools both rural and urban, in the efforts being put forth to instill in the boys and girls proper ideas of life and living; and also with our worthy and efficient county superintendent in his efforts to unify the work of the schools of this county.

WOODROW INDEPENDENT

Board of Directors: D. W. Gill, president; D. W. Huckabee, secretary; S. E. Bourland; J. B. McClure; Joe Coleman; J. A. Glenn; E. V. Stubbs.

Woodrow school is located ten miles south of Lubbock in one of the most desirable places in Lubbock County. We have a beautiful, well equipped, two-story, brick building which justly signifies a progressive and co-operative spirit among our people. We are at present maintaining ten grades and our AIM is to make our work thorough enough to be acceptable to the best high schools of our state.

CARLISLE INDEPENDENT

Carlisle Independent, five mile west of the Tech College.

Faculty: H. G. Robinson, superintendent; Jos. L. Byrd principal; Miss Townsend, intermediate; Mrs. Ben Smith, primary.

The history of the Carlisle school is linked with that of the ranch life of the late Uncle Gus Carlisle. Beginning back around 1912, as a one teacher school with twelve pupils, we grew in twelve years to a faculty of five teachers and 200 pupils. Our district was the third rural district in the county to vote independence. We claim the distinction of being the only school in all of Lubbock County that has produced a winner in Essay writing in the state contest. Winsome Goodpastor in 1922, received a medal and University scholarship from Austin. We boast of being the only rural school, that has had a pupil finish the course offered at home, and then stand the top of the Lubbock High School graduating class in grade per centage the following spring—Orville Burroughs, 1923. Carlisle has three times been the champion rural school of Lubbock county in the league contest. We offer manual training and Home economics to the students. We foster good singing in our school and community. We have a new modern church building. Our aim is to prepare the children for probable future citizens in the county, by assisting them to higher attainments, holding open the door to those who desire to attend college. May our native son, Orville Burroughs, do well in his appointment at West Point Military Academy.

LUBBOCK BUSINESS COLLEGE

What Is Your Aim In Life

A young man without an ultimate aim is mere putty. But the man with a definite purpose has a conquering spirit. He flashes out upon the horizon like a fixed star. He sets the pace for other men. He leads the way. He has a vision. He knows which way he is traveling, and he knows why. He can see the end from the beginning, because he has pictured it in his imagination.

Be Of Service To Humanity

To work for either money or fame for its own sake, is unworthy of any man. There is only one legitimate purpose in life, and that is, to serve humanity in some way. A man's aim should be to serve his family, to serve the public, and to serve posterity.

A course in the Lubbock Business College will help you to round out your education and to obtain the purpose you desire, no matter what that purpose be. You need not leave your home county to obtain as good commercial training as can be had.

For further information write or visit Lubbock Business College, 1303 1/2 Texas Avenue, Lubbock, Texas.

Our great desire is to help young people.
