

#37

THE STORY OF
THE MOTHER HEN AND HER 7 CHICKS

copyright Spring 1957

Chapter I

Our Chicken House

Chapter II

our ancestors

Kay Robinson

marion Wilson
Kay Robinson

Ann Russell
Karin Monkins
Mary Jane Hartley
Mayne Jaye Bratcher

"Gena" McGuire

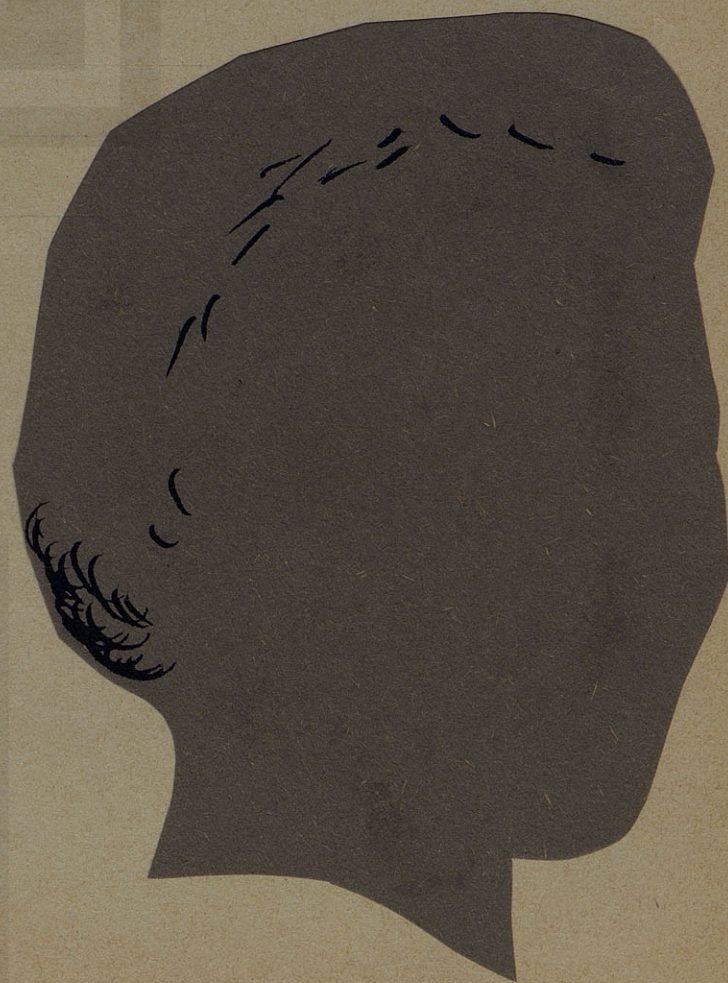

Chapter III

Just us chickens!

Jay Cook

The chicken who scratched this,
Was a tall, blond, smiling Miss.
She watched T.V. most of the time,
And loved to walk in the sunshine.
A husband she will soon attain,
So is there more I need to explain?

Nodell Clanton

Always ready to have fun!

Always thinking of Gene!

Always thinking of June 15th!

Always the first to go to bed!

Always ready for a 2nd helping!

Always trying to sing!

Always talking loud!

Shirley Nelson

Sweetness.

Happy.

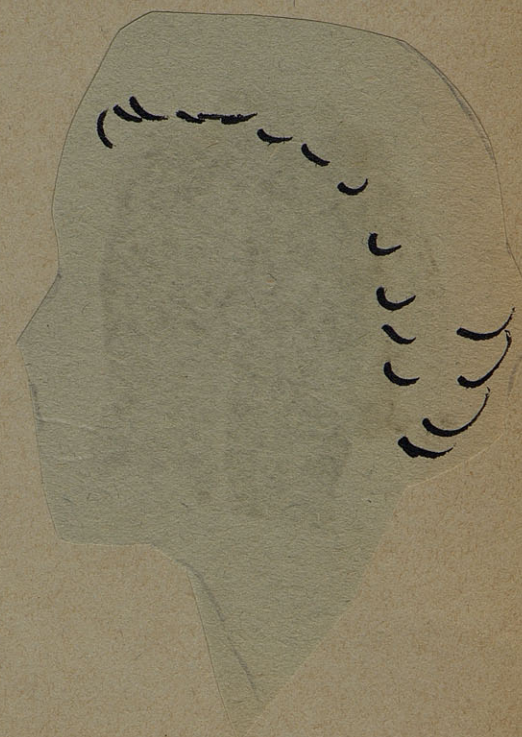

Ideal.

Ready to play.

Laughter.

Easy to live with.

Yellow beam of sunshine.

Connie Crow.

She went to class 90% of the time!

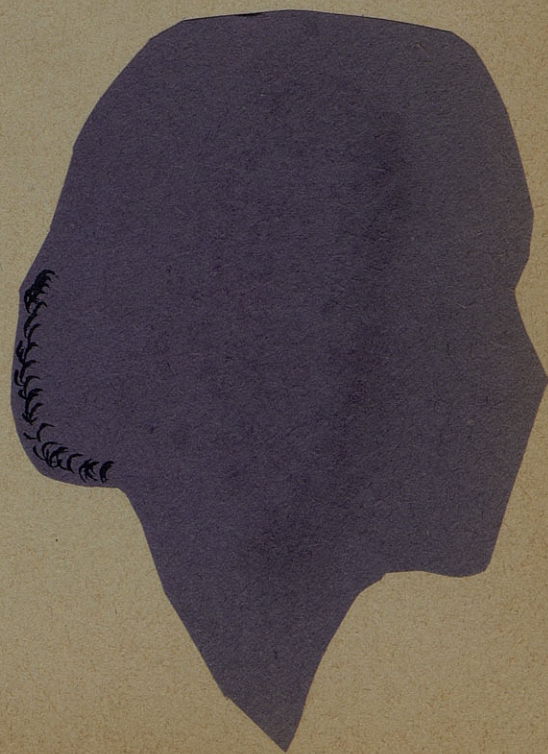

She attracted all the boys!

She specialized in French men!

She loved to act silly!

She loved to take naps!

She was a true friend!

Susan Guthrie

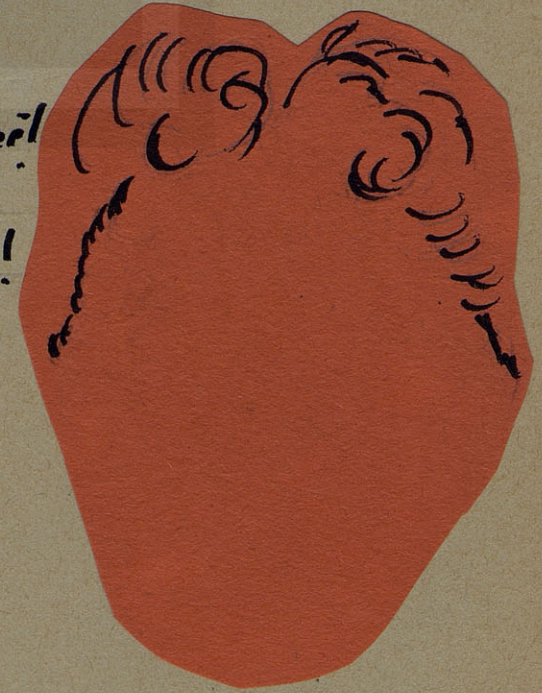

We watched her modern dance!

We tried to make her a Texan!

We called her our "vacuum cleaner!"

We considered her a "lot" of "fun"!

We watched her be our first cook!

Betty Hillis

She loved to talk about Earl!

She waited for Earl to call!

She was the one we loved to tease!

She tried to chin - every day!

She was a friend at all times!

Melba Watson

Known as Butterball -

Known as "hand me" because of her height -

Known as the "nientine kid" -

Known as Melba because she kept us laughing!

PAM

The one who gets most of our attention is Pamela Merriman. She is our 9 to 5 baby. We think that is no equal to Pam.

— Bathtime —

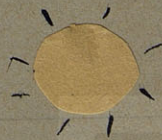

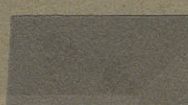

— Playtime —

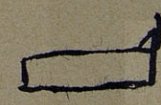

Our "Angel"

Mother Hen—

Our Mother Hen's real name was Miss Billie Wolfe. She was a wonderful Mother Hen. She had short,  hair. She was the beam of  - shine that could turn  skies into skies.

When we made draperies for the dining room and the living room, we called her our slave-driver. But she did not have a !
She was always the last to go to  At night. She was always ready to laugh.

To us she was the  playing the .

Some faces —

Gene Davis and Winnie

Earl charms the "Girls"!

Everyone watches
Nadell cook!

Earl Morrison and Betty.

Betty and Nadell

Susan, Shirley, Miss Wolfe,
Connie, Melba, Betty

Connie, our strong woman! Oh, how she could chin!

Susan having fun, as usual!

Melba couldn't quite make it!

Cook

She planned, cooked, and fed us 3 times a day.

Louandress

She kept our linens
clean and was our hostess.

House keepers

Up stairs

&

Down stairs

They kept our home
Spick and span.

Duties

Baby
Director

Our hast
Meal

Ancestors

Dessert Party

255

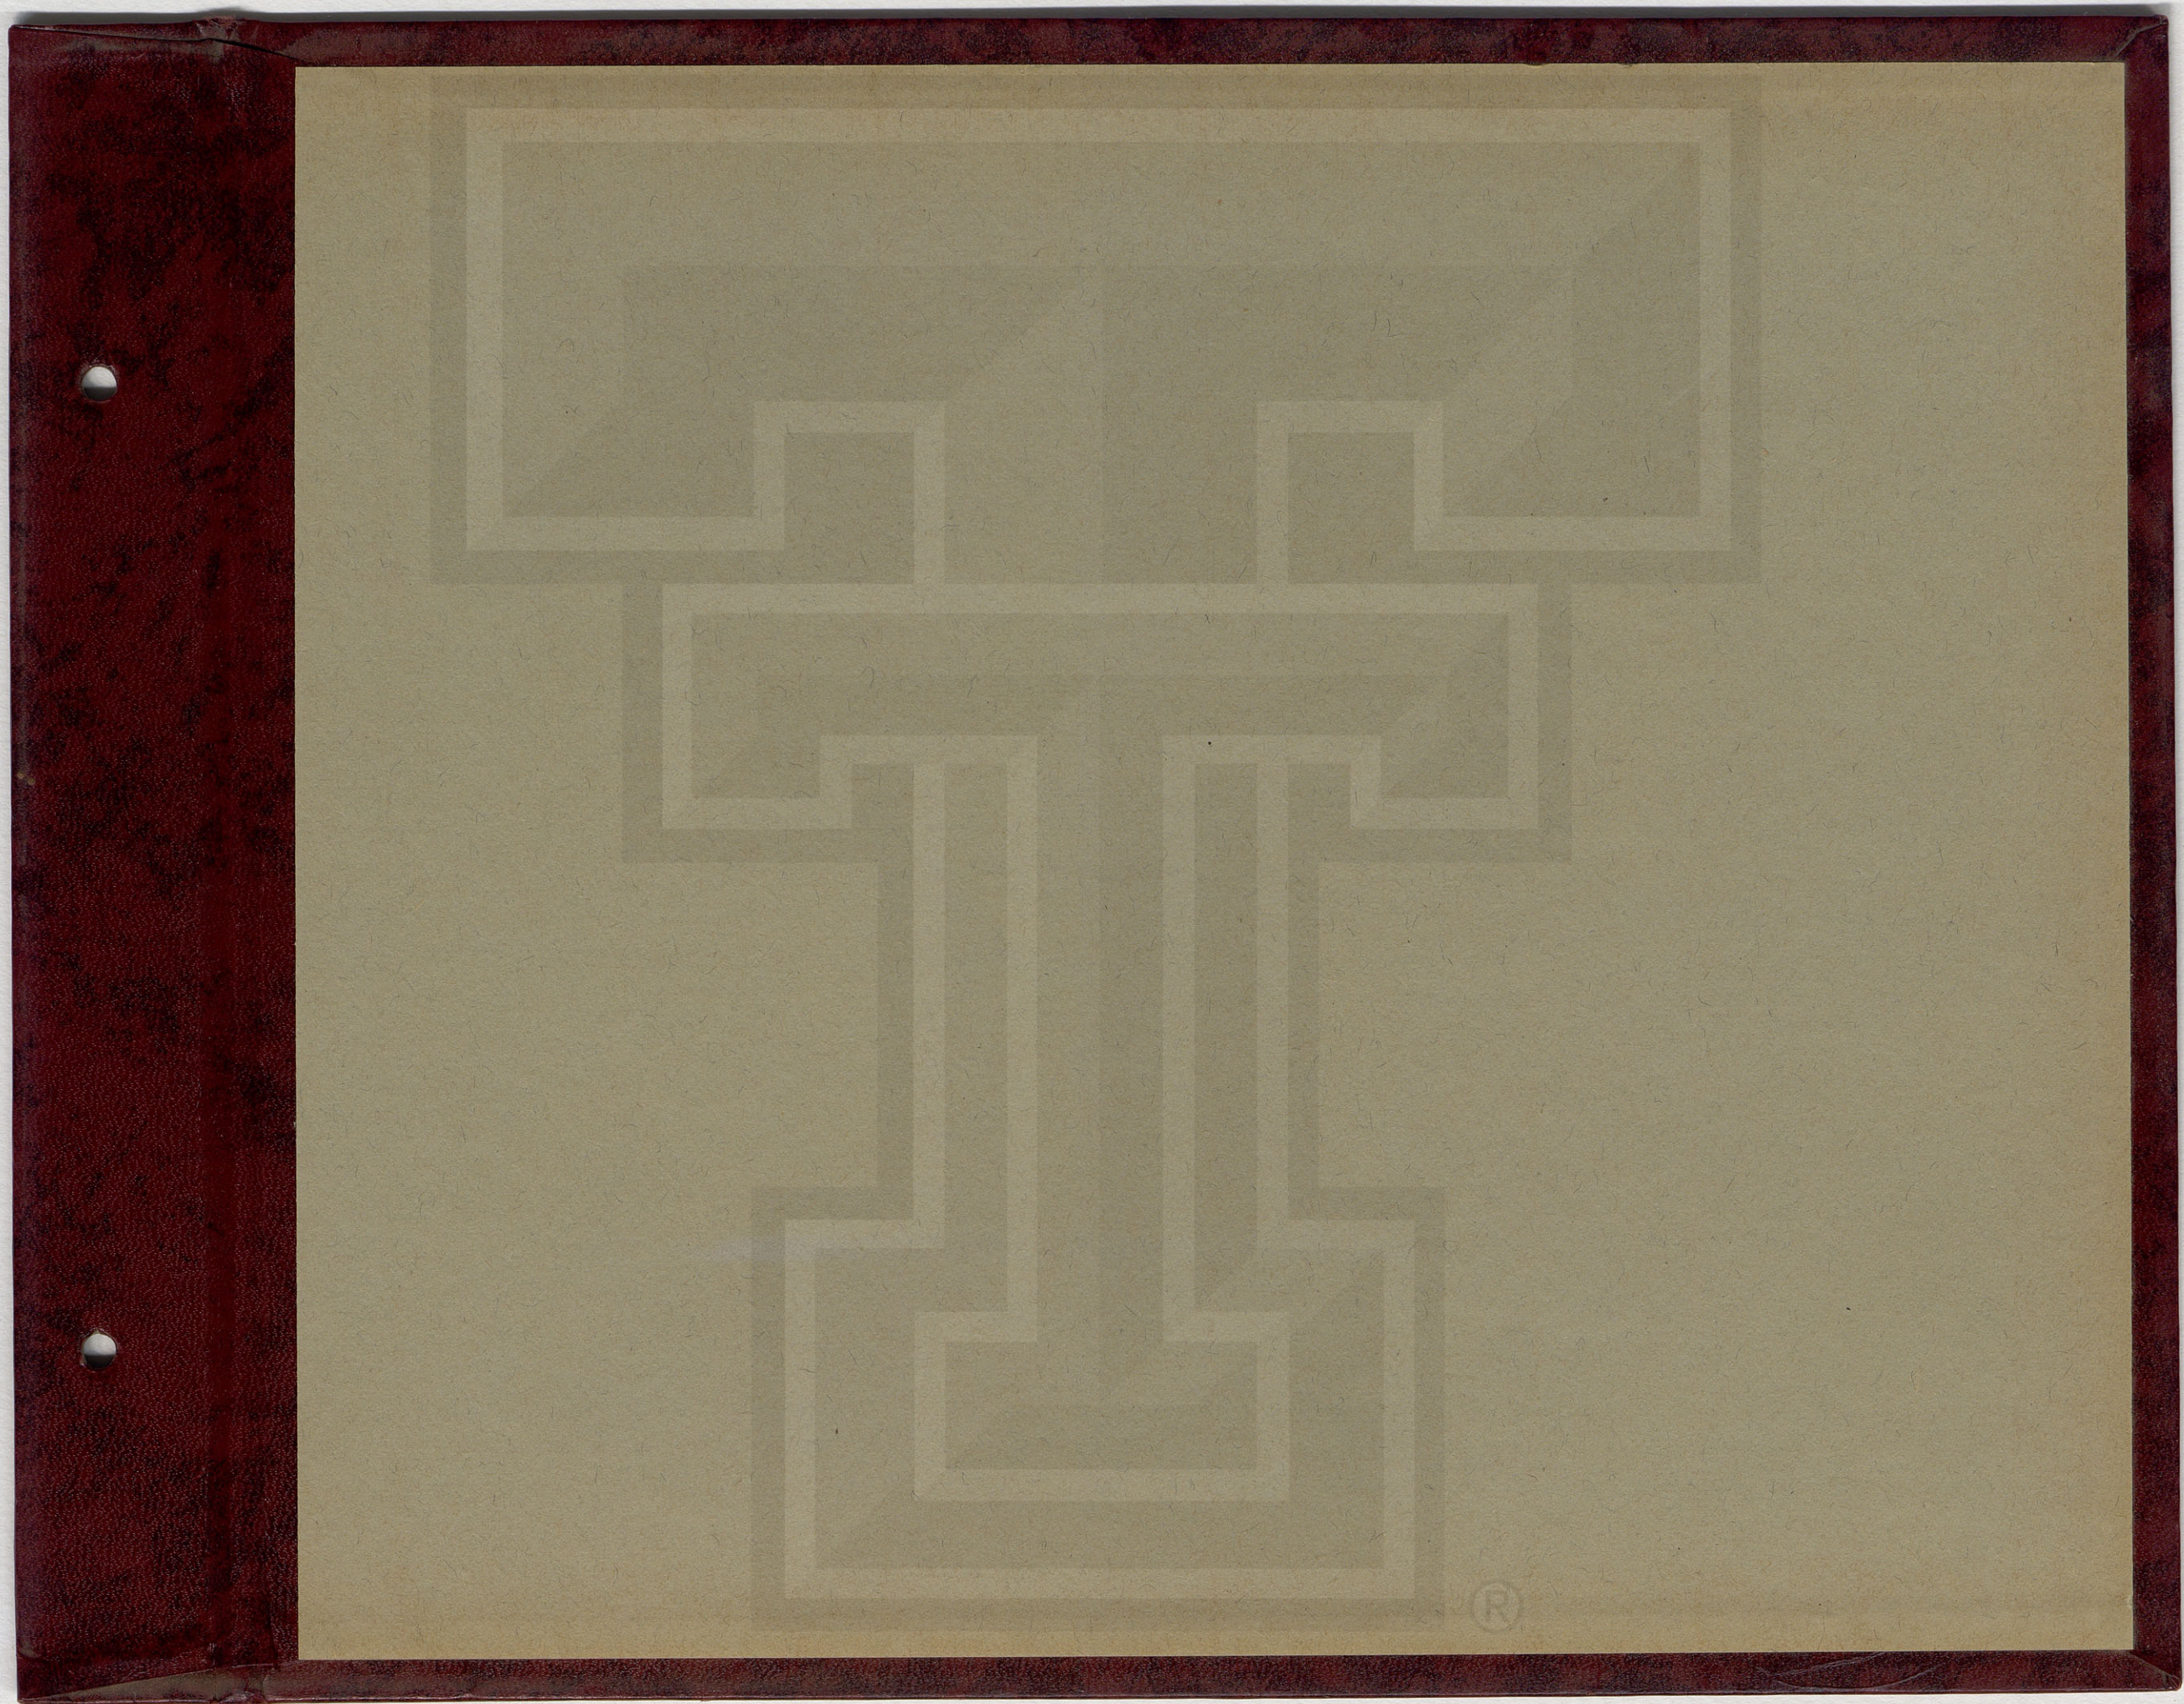

Descendents

Curtain ~ time

Nadell Canton

®