Why, but don't they make a nice looking couple !!

"Our" baby,
Chris! This picture was taken Oct 29, 1954.
We each got a picture to keep!
The little suit
he is wearing is blue nylon.

She bought it for him.

When this picture was taken Chris was laughing out loud - isn't he a doll?

Just paused for a break from our work - naturally Chris was included!

We took several pictures of the group during our date party. Some were playing cards, cooking, eating and doing the dishes - unfortunately, they were at good.

Projects:

Betty Miller - - - - - selecting, preparing, packaging and preserving food in the food freezer

Carolyn Callaway - - - - - Scrapbook

Opal Carole - - - - - selecting, preparing, packaging and preserving food in the food freezer

Lois Foster - - - - - chairman of window washing

Bonnie Hatfield - - - - - Laundry curtains

Iva Lewis - - - - - Handy-gal

An overall project in which we all participated was the window washing.
Lois supervised and each of us had a designated number to do. In this we learned a new technique using ammonia as a cleaner.

Dear hostesses.

It is already ten days ago, that I had the honor and pleasure to be one of your guests. I really enjoyed it very much and admired the "Culinary Art"

Thank you very much for your hospitality.

Yours Sincerely,

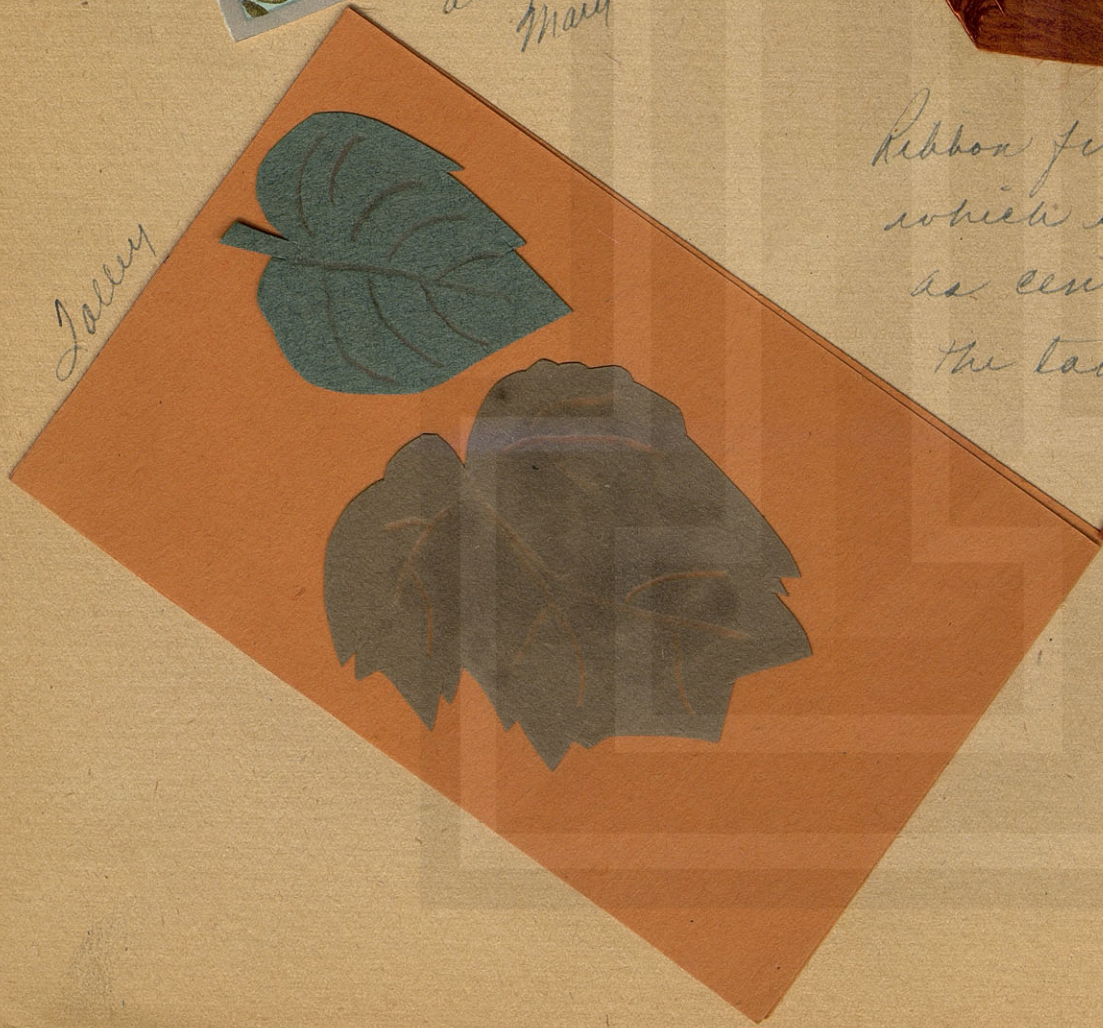

Nelly Huyzer

Entertainment and Guests

We had our first party, a dessert Canasta, October 4, 1954. We served Cranberry Delight to these guests:

Barbara Barran
Ruth Drew
Suzanne Matteson
Betty Davis Hamilton
Mrs. Munson

Sarah Smith
Mary Ann Lahn
Betty Rahun
Lynn Rogers

Our game was real exciting - it was tied. Miss Drew won the prize for high score.

On the 13th of October we had our first dinner guests - Eva Creme and Nellie Hayser, the two foreign students in our mission. Opal was food manager and served:

Roast
Buttered Asparagus Creamed Potatoes
Lettuce Salad - French Dressing
Hot Rolls - Butter
Applesauce Cake and Ice Cream

On October 20th, we had Miss M^cDaniel and Sean Tinsley as dinner guests. Miss M^cDaniel dined with Miss Tinsley. Iva was food manager and served an attractive and delicious dinner, ending with Cheesecake, Sean Tinsley's favorite.

The guests returned extended to us an invitation to have dessert at their home on Nov. 2. We went as a group and had delicious strawberry pie and ice cream. We had a delightful time seeing for the first time Sean Tinsley's lovely new home.

THE party was the steak supper we had for our dates. This was Oct. 23 during Betty's food management. She prepared the food ready for cooking and the boys did the actual cooking. Much fun! Our menu:

Broiled Barbequed Steaks
French fried Onion Rings Baked Potatoes
Sautéed Vegetable Salad
Hot Buttered French Bread
Coffee

We divided into 4 groups to cook & eat - when the last group finished we gave the boys "favors"! Since each gift was - a duty! So - we all retired to the kitchen & the work turned out to be fun!

After finishing the work, coffee and apple pie with ice cream was served as dessert. We then danced and played cards.

Guests:

Wade Brock
Jim Clearager
Glenn Paden
Gene Barrett

Bill Lage
Mavis Hest
Miss Cravens, was Miss Shreve's guest for dinner, but two others came for bridge later.
Dessert was served to them.

A dish drying job is NEEDED! YOU ARE HIRED.

This an example of the duties given to the boys as favors.

On October 25, we had Mr. & Mrs. Rouse as dinner guests. Mr. Rouse is an instructor in economics. Mrs. Rouse is Opal's sister. The dinner was a great success and we showed the guests over the house.

The following night, Mr. & Mrs. Achultz were guests. Carolyn was food manager. She kept Chris the whole day. The dinner was nice and the Achultz were lovely guests. We used the unique and interesting centerpieces sent us by them.

Mrs. Hall, the assistant Dean of Women, and Jim Prechard were guests for Sunday dinner on October 31. Louie was food manager and carried out the Halloween theme in her food and decorations. The menu was: Baked Chicken, Dressing Asparagus Fruit Salad
Peach Chutney
Hot Rolls - Butter
Seed Tea
Pumpkin Pie Whipped Cream

Wednesday, November 3, we entertained as last time. Guests for dinner were Ann Miller, Betty's Cousin & Ann Lee Turner, Carolyn's roommate.
Lou was food manager and served a delicious Steak dinner.

We have enjoyed having our friends over as guests during our residence here. Besides having fun, we have gained much experience in entertaining, social grace and preparing for special occasions. Planning entertainment on a definite budget has been a learning experience for us all, too.

He moved out November 6, and as we leave we'd like to leave these words to those of you who will follow us.
May you learn as much and enjoy the house as well as I.

Betty Diller

This has been one of the most enjoyable semesters of my college life. I have learned to love Miss Drew and my five 'sisters' dearly; they have a warm corner in my heart. To you future girls - 'The House' is wonderful."

Ina V. Lewis

I'd like to say a great big - "Thank you" to Miss Drew, the House & the five girls I lived with - for 7 weeks packed full of learning, living, giving & taking - and fun!

Caroleyn Callaway

This has been a learning experience as well as a lot of fun. It's great to get to know the girls like you do in the House.

Lais Antu

There aren't words to express my appreciation to each member of the group for adding so much to an all ready valuable experience.

The Home Management House will always have a special place reserved in my book of memories.

(over)

Opal Carroll

I would like to say "Netto" to everything that the other girls have written in this book. I didn't realize that seven weeks could be filled with so much fun, laughter, thought, working together and getting attached to a small group—and that's exactly what the Home Management House has proven. It has been "real great"! Thanks to Miss Drew and the other "Five Little Peppers" for a wonderful seven weeks.
