Once upon a time in the land of the Home Managers there came to live together 7 Brides and a Groom. As usual when such combinations occur, situations arise some expected - some otherwise - which demand immediate attention. Such was the case in this happy home of eight. No sooner had they tidied up their lovely little home when blooey the ceiling fell in and right behind it came a gushing stream of hot water.
I guess one could say the group became rather excited. Avanell answered the telephone when the doorbell rang, Glenda slipped and landed you know where..... and our illustrious Groom..... she was rather upset with her 7 Brides who giggled when the plumber had to bathe before the water could be stopped. Our evening meal was most unusual being spent in chaos, mid gushing water and flying carrots.

Oops!

Is the plumber giving you a bad time

Say, is this the hall?

Watch out!

What are you so happy about!!

My but you're strong

After this little situation we settled down to our normal(?) duties. Of course we were all so industrious (can't you tell by the pictures). There's the time we were to have banana pudding and Barbara burned two batches.
Then there's the time the bowl broke in the tuna fish. And don't forget the time Glenda let the baby's bath run over.
These all make for one big happy family. In this family there was one bride who kept telling the biggest potato story.

We were all ready to plow up the campus and plant potatoes.

This family loves to entertain.

Some of our distinguished guest were Miss Jacqueline Sterner, Miss Betty Faye

Dickey, Dr. Willa Vaughn Tinsley, and Miss Ethel Rollo. We had the loveliest Chinese tea

Avanell and Miss G. and her mid-morning coffee

Industriou Group!!
Billie & Helen

one afternoon, Glenda looked just darling in her pretty Kimono sitting on the floor serving tea. Maybe one of these days we'll all learn to speak a language as well as Glenda especially the things she knows.

By this time Miss G. had given us all names of Fortune Gods. She even had buttons which represented our names.

The biggest event in this happy home was yet to come....

The Boy Party..... My but boys came from far and near. Some 180 miles - some across the campus. Gee but it was a delightful time. Remember our white grape juice in sherbet glasses. And guess who came as our guests that night - yep you guessed it - The Pat Merriman's.

What's so funny you two?

Gaining some smart?

And oh we mustn't forget Miss

Sterner came that night too.

Glenda's own Roy Glenn carved the ham she had so meticulously prepared. Dinner was so much fun even if some of the boys couldn't get their knees under the table... Too bad for Ruth Ann and Larry & Avanell and Johnny - they just shouldn't love the kitchen so..... That's about all the excitement one can take in an evening.

My but a lot has happened... and still there's more to tell.

(Say Ruth Ann we didn't have to put up the signs after all) One of our brides (yes Ruth Ann) has had a most interesting summer.

Having just come back from New York, no one knew she was in town - (boys that is) But oh it didn't take long.... Just look What'sa matter, you tired?

Ruth Ann & Larry

Miss Sterner, James McDowell & Helen

There you go laughing again

Hi Johnny!

O.K. kids,
what's up

Edwina & Connie

Oh you look darlin'
Larry

at the developments.... First she's going steady and - Now -

Well have you seen that pin she's showing off - Wondering who it belongs to? Believe his name is Mr. Larry Glasgow, Miss Gerlach really had the camera going the night R.A. got the pin. We just had a regular celebration.

Oh! almost forgot about our Photo Album. Girls have you written for your true love yet? Better hurry they might be gone pretty soon.

We almost had a wedding in our laundry room night. The invitation was already sent out.... just one catch the groom didn't get one. Some how that just fell through.

Say, where's your pin?

Did you find one
Betty Faye?

Oh if Larry could see you now !!

Surprised ?

We certainly had a lot of trouble with one of our brides.

She just wouldn't be budged to get a date to our Boy Party.

Helen you shouldn't be so bashful!!! Edwina would have been glad to loan you one of hers.

One of our brides certainly had a generous boy friend. I've been told his name is William Hamilton. He brought his Hi Fi for us to listen to.

Worked fine for a while but then it just got tired and decided to act up making all sorts of strange sounds Billie (our potato story girl) certainly did us up good when she became food manager. What menus she did plan....even topped

End of a trying day
